

2026. Peace and renewal in the new year.

Executor/Personal Representative of An Estate

Who can be an Executor/ Personal Representative?

*Someone named in the will. If the decedent's will names a person as the executor, that person is his first priority.***

*If there is no will (intestate), the Court follows priority rules.

When there is no will or the named executor cannot serve, the court appoints someone in this general order:

- surviving spouse
- surviving children
- other relatives (parents, siblings, etc.)

*Corporate Executors (A corporation like a trusts company or bank may also serve as the personal representative if legally authorized.

Need more information? Check out our website. We can't wait to support you!

Dawn Haynes Burgess
Certified Probate Real Estate Specialist
(240) 717-5655 (direct)
www.hearthtohomecares.com

